FYI: I don't think the CCAA will clear in time given that they need 10 days now. Also, we'll have to adjust the schedule for the hornshell.

Dear All,
The Office of Executive Secretary needs 10 business days to clear notices and rules going to the Federal Register. Please allow for this time in your schedule. Their 10 business days starts when they receive the document (after it has cleared AD, D, Casey, and FWP).

I just learned that Exec Sec adds the 10 days after they receive the document and change the FR date if it is less than 10 working days away. Thus, the mystery of the changing FR dates is solved [I think].
